QUESTIONS FOR TESTIMONIALS

Name: Richard (Dick) Wagner

How long have you been a member?

57 Years

Were your family members a member of RCPC?

Yes

What first attracted you to RCPC?

When we visited, the minister, Jim Allison and the congregation made us feel welcome. We were interested in joining a church with children's bible schools and youth programs. RCPC provided this and our spiritual needs.

What changes have you observed since you joined the church?

We have more church members, youth, and young adults active in all programs offered at RCPC.

What do you feel are the strengths/weaknesses of RCPC?

Our Pastors over the years have been good shepherds and provided the spiritual needs by preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ. Our active congregation and music ministry is our strength. Our weakness may be in not increasing our membership.

What boards/committees have you served on?

Board of Deacons
An Elder on the Session
Worship and Music Committee
Budget Committee
Church Treasurers

What programs or ministries are important to you?

The Preschool program
Boy Scouts
West End Center for Youth
Haiti Allison School
Hungar Program
Presbyterian Community Center
Music & Worship Ministries

If asked, how would you describe RCPC to a new member?

Raleigh Court is a very warm and loving Christian family who wants you to feel welcome and provide for your spiritual and personal needs. We offer many programs and ministries. Let me know how I can help you.

What one thing/happening/or event do you fondly, specifically remember?

In the early 1970's we had two programs I fondly remember. As a reward for good Sunday School attendance, by the Juniors High School students, my wife, Cynthia, and I took them to Myrtle Beach for one week on our church bus. We usually had 15-25 children.
In the 1970's, Jim Allison and about 100 members of our congregation went to Camp Firecraft, Presbyterian Camp, over the Labor Day weekend for a fun loving, spiritual family time.
